

MASA security program

For the first time as a MASA program, a five months program offering the theory and practice of the different security disciplines is offered to young professional Jews from abroad, in Israel. The program is brought to you by Betar's Israel Sheli in association with Israeli Institute for Community Protection. While the core of the program is an introduction with central issues of Security and the learning from Israeli professionals about the centrality of the Issue in Israel, the program will also provide the experience of living in Israel, among Israelis, Zionist content and the taste of IDF military life.

The program offers:

- Practical and theoretical Security trainings delivered by our fine professional staff
 - Shooting practices in different situations and conditions
 - Program will introduce its participants to the different kinds of weapons and ammunitions
 - Participants will interact with IDF soldiers and officers
 - Lectures and workshops delivered by Security professionals and high ranked officers
 - Professional Ethics
 - A month long military activity in Sar-El
 - Krav Maga and Martial Arts lessons and practices
 - Physical trainings
 - Local law enforcement and emergency authorities will be introduced to the Program's participants
 - Basic CPR course
